Scripture is the Source of all Laws and we Lay out the following as our laws which we hold closely.

LAWS OF SCRIPTURE

A great scholar said, "If a man-made law cannot be traced to a divine source, then not only should its effectiveness be questioned but, even more, its intent should be suspected."

The divine laws, as revealed to Moses, must be discerned spiritually and put into practice in our daily life. Wise decisions, based on obedience to the laws of the Bible so abundant in mercy and justice, bring about the constant harmony and peace, which can be ours.

<sup>33</sup> Nem. 10:28 And the rest of the people, the priests, the L'Awites, the gatekeepers, the singers, the Nethinim, and all those who had separated themselves from the peoples of the lands unto the Torah of Elohim, their wives, their sons, and their daughters, all who had knowledge and understanding,

<sup>34</sup> Leviticus 20:22-23 'And you shall guard all My laws and all My right-rulings, and do them, so that the land where I am bringing you to dwell does not vomit you out. 23'And do not walk in the laws of the nation which I am driving out before you, for they do all these, and therefore I loathed them.

<sup>35</sup> Ne. 13:3 And it came to be, when they had heard the Torah, that they separated all the mixed multitude from Yisra'Äl.

<sup>36</sup> Romans 14:11 For it has been written, "As I live, says YAHUWAH, every knee shall bow to Me, and every tongue shall confess to Elohim."

12 Each one of us, therefore, shall give account of himself to Elohim.

<sup>37</sup> Romans 12:2 And do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, so that you prove what is that good and well-pleasing and perfect desire of Elohim.

<sup>38</sup> 1 John 2:15-16 Do not love the world nor that which is in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him.

16 Because all that is in the world – the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life – is not of the Father but is of the world.

<sup>39</sup> Matt. 6: 24 "No one is able to serve two masters, for either he shall hate the one and love the other, or else he shall cleave to the one and despise the other. You are not able to serve Elohim and mammon.

<sup>40</sup> Luke 16:13 13 "No servant is able to serve two masters, for either he shall hate the one and love the other, or else he shall cling to the one and despise the other. You are not able to serve Elohim and mammon."

<sup>41</sup> Revelation 18:4 And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues.

The following list shows the translation of Scriptural laws into their modern application:

The Following shall be enacted as Laws of our Community and way of Life.

The Following Laws shall be listed by Title, Subject, Book, Chapter and Section.

The Titles shall be divided into Two different Section. The First Section Shall be Religious Law and the Second Section Shall be Common Law and the second being part of the first.

ARTICLE 1

The state as a person of international law should possess the following qualifications: a) a permanent population; b) a defined territory; c) government; and d) capacity to enter into relations with the other states.

ARTICLE 3

The political existence of the state is independent of recognition by the other states. Even before recognition the state has the right to defend its integrity and independence, to provide for its conservation and prosperity, and consequently to organize itself as it sees fit, to legislate upon its interests, administer its services, and to define the jurisdiction and competence of its courts.

ARTICLE 8 No state has the right to intervene in the internal or external affairs of another.

ARTICLE 10

The primary interest of states is the conservation of peace. Differences of any nature which arise between them should be settled by recognized pacific methods.
